Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgiveness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

Had Eggs Every Day.

The winter of 1903 and 1904 was especially severe and you could hardly blame hens if they didn't lay. Mrs. D. P. Smith of Washington, Vt., says she has eggs every day. In her letter, which follows, she tells how she brought about these results: "I write to inform you of the excellent results obtained from the use of Page's Poultry Food. I have twenty-seven hens. I have not had a sick fowl and have had eggs every winter. I can say that I cannot afford to do without Page's Poultry Food."

VERMONT MUNICIPAL BONDS.

The firm of Jose, Parker & Co. of Boston is making a specialty of Vermont Securities and are offering to the Investors and Savings Banks of Vermont some very attractive issues of Vermont Municipal Bonds.

Among those recently brought to our attention are $10,000 Bristol, Vt., 4 per cent Water Bonds and $50,000 town of Brighton, Vt., 30 year 4 per cent Bonds, offered to yield investors 3.55 per cent. A yield of 3.55 per cent on Bonds having such undoubted securities is much above the probable yield during the next 30 years.

Municipal Bonds are now selling at lower prices than at almost any time for 10 years past. Purchases made now should show a steady increase in price up to a 3 1/2 per cent income basis.

WILL APPEAL TO LEGISLATURE.

Towns Want Reimbursement for Expenses in Toll Bridge Suits.

At the recent joint meeting of the bridge commissioners of New Hampshire and Vermont, held here, statements of the expenses incurred by the towns of Hartford and Lebanon, N. H., in freeing the old toll bridge across the Connecticut at this point and constructing the present highway bridge were presented. Hartford's share of the expenditures was in round numbers $11,000 and Lebanon's, $30,000. A lawsuit in which the latter town was engaged with the owners of the old toll bridge, cost that town about $6,000, while Hartford settled with the claimants for about $1,200. The commissioners will report the expenses to the legislatures of the two states and it is expected that the Vermont legislature will reimburse Hartford a part at least of the expenses, while New Hampshire will do the same for Lebanon.

Other towns on opposite sides of the Connecticut between which toll bridges have been or will be freed will doubtless make similar applications for relief, as it is contemplated to free all the remaining toll bridges across the Connecticut river.

Former St. Albans Man Dead.

Myron Buck, at one time a prominent attorney and leading citizen of St. Albans and county, died Saturday morning of paralysis at the State hospital for the insane at Waterbury. Mr. Buck was born in Fairfax December 12, 1823 and had been a resident of that town and St. Albans for nearly the entire period of his long life. December 16, 1853, he married Lucy B. Reed of Cambridge, who died October 18, 1895. Mr. Buck is survived by two sons and one daughter, Myron N. and Reed Buck of this city, and Mrs. C. E. Bittering of Great Barrington, Mass. Mr. Buck was educated in the district schools and the University of Vermont, Burlington, from which institution he was graduated in 1848. He had earlier studied law with Anson Soule of Fairfax, one of Franklin county's old-time lawyers. After his graduation, Mr. Buck went to the South, living for a time at Augusta, Ga., where he continued the study of law. Returning to Fairfax, he was admitted to practice law at the April term of the Franklin county court in 1854. He practiced in Fairfax until 1858, when he was elected State's attorney, and moved to St. Albans. Later Mr. Buck was for a time municipal judge of St. Albans. The funeral services were held from St. Luke's Episcopal Church, of which Mr. Buck was a vestryman, at 2.30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

WORTH A THOUGHT.

This Statement Will Interest Scores of Barre Readers.

The facts given below are worth a perusal by all who are anxious about their physical condition or are similarly situated to this resident of Orange. It is a local occurrence and can be thoroughly investigated.

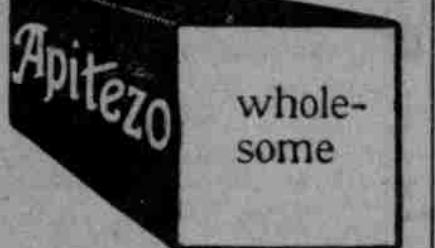

Mrs. A. M. Andrews (A. M. Andrews, farmer), residence, Orange, says: "Some two years ago I first noticed pain in my back and hips and as the weeks and months went by it became more severe and more of much longer duration. Finally too frequent action of the kidney secretions was added to the backache, and as they were often distressing and annoying health ran down and it was impossible for me to do the slightest housework with any degree of pleasure. If I was on my feet for any length of time I was taken with dizziness and blurring before my eyes and I often became so weak and nervous that I almost fell. A lady friend in Barre recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and my husband went to E. A. Brown's for the first box. I cannot positively state that the remedy has actually rid me of the cause of the backache and other complications due to kidney complaint, but I must conscientiously say that from the benefit received I have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills and believe that what is said about them is not misrepresentation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
